

The Pursuit of Excellent Public Speaking!

This is a 4 week course, open to all.

Participants in the “Pursuit of Excellence” conference should base their speeches on what they intend to actually deliver at that conference.

Timetable

Week 1

Shooting of initial “raw” speech (upto 5 mins) for each attendee, followed by self- and group- analysis (focus on positives!!)

Week 2

Viewing of previous historically great speech makers (eg. Martin Luther King, JFK, TDJakes), followed by analysis of what actually makes them great.

Shooting of an “imitation” speech for each attendee, and brief analysis.

Homework : to prepare a short speech (of 5 minutes) for following week.

Week 3

Lesson on speech delivery (for church or conference audiences).

Shooting of “previously prepared” speech, and analysis.

Homework to prepare a final speech (of 10 minutes), using all lessons learned above.

Week 4

Shooting of “final” speech, and final analysis.

Good luck!
